Editorial

The time is fast approaching when we will be asking you to renew your Club membership, that is of course if you wish to rejoin this happy band. Your current membership expires officially on the 31st March 2011 and we look forward to you rejoining the Club before the A.G.M. in May.

So that we do not overload our Membership Secretary with everyone trying to re-new his or her membership at the same time would you please try to spread the load a little. When re-joining Jean has to enter you details in the Register, take your subscription and make out your new card; it all takes time and, if a crowd gathers around her, it tends to cause unnecessary delays.

Please therefore spare a little thought for Jean, she will be doing her best to accommodate you all as quickly as possible.

As you are aware the Membership Fee for 2011/2012 is now £7.00 so it will help a lot if you have the correct money ready.

Of course, if you prefer to pay by cheque then please do so, making your cheque out to "U3A of Highbridge".

A Membership Form is available on page 9 so please use it when you re-join, it will save a lot of time.

Annual Lunch

We have, at last, been able to sort out the date and menu from the Beachcomber Inn, details are on Page 4. This year our Annual Lunch will be on Monday 18th April.

The reason our lunch is being held a little later this year is because the Beachcomber Inn has been undergoing a major refit and the bad weather during the winter played havoc with the building programme. We obviously tried to get a date in February but because the work will not be completed until late March it was impossible. The Beachcomber Inn has always given a very good service we have tried to remain with them.

Fay Burstons has regularly contacted the manager and, eventually, got a firm date and details of the menu.

Because the Club had already arranged for a coach load of members to visit the Bristol Hippodrome on the Wednesday 20th April to see "Hairspray" the lunch will have to be on Monday 18th April. We obviously do not wish to jeopardise either event by trying to hold both on the same day, it would be stupid, and both functions would suffer.

Fay will be happy to take your orders and supply you with a ticket at the Coffee Morning. If you can not make it to the Coffee Morning ring her on 01278 782529

The menu: -

Beef or Turkey Carvery
plus a selection of vegetables
All served from their renowned carvery with a selection of freshly cooked seasonal vegetables and potatoes.

Vegetarian Nut Roast (served with a terrine of chopped vegetables, herbs and couscous)

Apple Pie & Custard
served with Devonshire custard
Chocolate Fudge Cake
served with cream

Fresh Fruit Salad
a medley of fresh fruits served with double cream

Coffee & Mints

Price £10.50 members
and £12.00 guests

Club News

New Age Kurling

Stan the group leader has told me that the sport is becoming more competitive now that the participants are getting the hang of how best to propel the 'stones', I believe it has a lot to do with the way the 'pusher' is used.

Also, it is pleasing to hear that interest in this sport is growing; of late a few more members have turned up to play. (At the last count 11)

Stan and Rae Vousdon-White will be jetting off to Australia shortly to meet up with some of Stan's long lost family, they will be away for about two months. But if you are interested in joining the happy group don't worry because Sybil Tilley has volunteered to keep the group going, 'thank you' both. If you wish to know more about Kurling please ring Sybil on 01278/787054

Calligraphy

Yes, we have a new group about to start. Some years ago we did have a Calligraphy group that was lead by member Margaret Sims who had to withdraw her services when members of her family were taken ill.

Then at their first meeting of the New Year some members of our Card Making group announced that they had received calligraphy pens for Christmas. Not being sure how best to use them they asked if there was anyone that could show them and upon learning that I was involved in running the earlier group could I be persuaded to run a class again?

Because it looked as if all interest had died I gave most of my material to a charity but luckily had retained some information, this enabled me to compile a basic work programme. Member Ron Turner, who is more proficient at the art than I am, is going to help me out.

The new course should have started on Monday 14th February but because I had to return to hospital following my operation so it had to be cancelled. The new start date is 14th March when we will assemble in Southwell House and attempt to master the art of writing Calligraphy Scripts. When we can begin to master this art and find that the more you use it the easier it becomes, hopefully they will soon be writing their own texts for the cards that they have made.

"Writers Group"

What, another new group? We have within the Club a number of members who do, from time to time, produce articles for the magazine and this has often prompted me to ask if we could again have a "Creative Writers Group".

Sylvia Shepherd, our Vice-Chairperson, before re-locating with Malcolm to France some years ago, was a member of our previous group. Sylvia, now that she has returned the fold, is interested in getting the group going again. This is the type of group that could be self-regulating with its members arranging to meet as and when they feel it is necessary.

Sylvia says some members have shown an interest and she wishes to have a chat with them in order to discuss the possibility of forming a new group. Please have a word with Sylvia at a Coffee Morning or ring her on 780377.

Carole Loveridge has kindly done a write-up on the recent trip to Bath, it will be published in next month's magazine. Write-ups do not need to be long; just a few lines that will hopefully 'grab' the reader's interest.

Christmas Celebrations

During the Christmas period some Groups celebrated the Festival by going out for a meal or by holding a party at their last meeting.

The Card Making Group was one of the later and I hear the Patchwork/Quilting Group went out for a meal at a local hostelry.

The Thursday Art Group had a similar event at their last meeting; however, it so happened that one of its members belongs to a Wine Making Group and a sample beverage was brought along for 'tasting.' It proved to be one of the best wines ever tasted by one member who also found it a touch too strong. The daughter, upon hearing that her mother was a little tiddly would not believe it and said 'Let me have a word with her' whereupon mum was admonished for overdoing her celebrating. Mum did request that she be allowed to obtain a bottle for home consumption.

There is a brief report later in the magazine about the Skittle Group's annual Xmas party, this year at the Crossways Inn.

“Away Days”

The first ‘Away Day’ of the year was held on Thursday 10th February when members went to Bath.

Trips proposed for this year are: -

31st March: - Slimbridge Wetlands & Wildfowl Park. Gloucestershire.

Price: - £15.00 Includes coach, gratuity and entrance.

Stout footwear recommended, see Notice Board for more details of trip.

This is the home of the worlds’ largest collection of swans, geese and ducks, plus the flamingos. You might be able to don a disguise and join the Great Crane Project and visit where they are being reared. .

26th May: - St Fagan’s Rural Life Museum, Cardiff.

Always a popular day out with so much to see, there are traditional crafts and activities brought to life. A working 18th century smithy/saddle making, etc. Bread and cakes are made daily. Again there is plenty to see and do.

30th June: - Weymouth, a day at the seaside, visit the Brewers Quay with all its attractions or the harbour.

18th August – Dawlish, this visit to the seaside is during the towns Carnival Week, it could be an interesting day out.

8th September: - Morwellham Quay, with its award-winning Heritage site featuring a historic port, copper mine, working farm plus its railway, heavy horses, museums, and a pub where you can lunch on pasties, etc.
This is where the BBC filmed its recent “Edwardian Farm” series. Could be another busy day.

12th October: - Minehead, incorporating a Steam Train Trip.

TBA November: - Frome-

TBA December: - Worcester, Christmas Markets.

A very good cross-section of interesting places to visit, they all need good weather, which Vour and Carole cannot guarantee, but the rest is up to you, go and enjoy!

Annual Christmas Skittle Party

On a very cold day in December members of the Group managed to get to The Crossways Inn for their usual Christmas Party. The building alterations at the inn had not been completed due to the weather conditions so they were unable to play skittles.

They did however hold the usual free raffle and later went to the dining room for a lovely buffet lunch.

This year member Mary Akers won the cup for the highest aggregate score for 2010 with a score of 339.

The 'Highest score on the day' cup was won by Brenda Hooper, with the alley out of commission it had to be played for later—on Jan 7th. After the buffet it was snowing very hard so all headed for home and we are pleased to say they all made it safely.

Play Reading

Tony Webb the leader of this Group has found it necessary to give this Group a rest for a while due to the shortage of members. Because some of the Group have been ill over the past few months Tony says he found that he had to play a number of characters and, as a result, the reading of a play was becoming a bit of a joke.

Tony feels that come April the situation may have improved.

Holidays?

Over the years the Club has organised a holiday around the Christmas period, usually a Tinsel & Turkey type of event. I have recently received some publicity blurb from Daish's an established group that owns 4 holiday hotels along the south coast.

Their hotels are at, Bournemouth, Shanklin, Torquay and Newquay.

Their holidays, at the end of this year, are as follows: -

Bournemouth, Shanklin and Torquay

October (All) } 4 nights/5 days -dinner, bed & breakfast

November (All) } coach etc inc VAT£159.00

Newquay (All) as above but.....£149.00

The above are NON Tinsel & Turkey events,

Tinsel & Turkey events are from Dec 1st to 23rd and are £10.00 less at each resort; if interested please let me (Ken Burston) know

U3A Joint Activities

This concerns mainly holidays; the Weston-super-Mare U3A has come up with a suggestion that local U3A's could, when organising holidays (and some other trips), open the event up to other clubs in order to make them viable. They have found, like all Clubs, that it is sometimes difficult to fill their coaches and one way to put 'bums on seats' would be to invite other Clubs to join their activity.

Some trips may be of a single interest such as the one they are planning for next March, this to Manchester on 20th/21st March in order to visit The Lowry Centre # at Salford. It involves an overnight stay with visits to various places en route.

The price including overnight B&B at the Premier Inn Trafford Park, talks, tours, coach fare and gratuities is £95.00.

The Lowry Centre houses the R.S. Lowry paintings (Matchstick men etc) and if you are interested in art this could be an ideal way to visit the exhibition without having to organise it yourself.

Their second trip is: - Holiday in Norfolk (4 nights/5 days) @ £338.00 staying at the Holiday Inn Norwich. Date: - 16th to 20th June 2011. Travel Insurance would be needed, obtainable direct from the coach company ---- Axe Vale.

This Club's Committee has discussed the idea and feel that until we are in a position to organise our own group holidays this suggestion from Weston U3A is a way of offering our members' a workable alternative.

If anyone is interested in either of the above would they please contact Fay or Ken Burston, we will then help them get in touch with the organisers concerned.

Something worth remembering is if you should decide to go on this type of trip/holiday you will be travelling with likeminded people e.g. members of other U3A's. Often on such occasions you find yourself on a coach with people you do not know and will probably never see again, whereas if they are U3A members you will have something in common. A great advantage as we (Fay and I) found out on a holiday just before Christmas.

Strollers Programme

The suggested strolls for March and April are: -

March 11th A day out at Fyne Court where there are a number of interesting walks, if it does rain on us there will be somewhere to shelter. If we are lucky the snowdrops may still be out.

March 25th The visit to Combwich and/or Steart, will be dependent upon the weather conditions because Steart is rather open to the elements.

April 8th This stroll is a little further a field being the one from Sandford to Congresbury, refreshments at the Railway Inn

April 29th Because 22nd April is Good Friday we will stroll the following week on the 29th instead going to Black Rock Path at Kewstoke

Crochet Group

Would members of this Group please note that Lorita, your Group Leader, has decided that because you are all now so proficient at the craft she feels there is no need now to hold classes on alternate Wednesdays. The next class will therefore be on 16th March and she will announce soon what her plans are for the future.

Thanks

On behalf of the Committee I wish to express sincere thanks to all who attend the Coffee Mornings for now placing their chairs back against the wall, as requested by Fay, our Chairperson.

Also, a thank you to Carole for holding the fort on her own the other week when nearly all the Committee were conspicuous by their absence.

The Third Age Trust

The Third Age Trust issues their magazine "U3A News" 4 times a year together with another publication called "Source" 3 times a year, both are supplied free of charge.

This Club is supplied with 50 copies of the "U3A News" (as originally requested) and the members that attend our Coffee Morning pick up a copy. So if you are one of those members you will know what I am referring to. We get just 1 copy of "Source".

The Third Age Trust has again reminded Club Secretaries that copies of both the "U3A News" and "Source" are available to all members for the next 12 months and would be posted direct to their home address subject to the payment of £1.60.

When we made a similar request some years ago the majority of members, although interested in receiving a copy from the Club, did not wish to receive a copy delivered direct to their door.

The Trust has again raised the question so if you are interested in receiving copies direct to your home please let me know by March 12th.

I have to advise the Trust no later than 22nd March.

The Workshops are usually well supported and are certainly informative, giving everyone an opportunity to socialise and chat about their common interests.

What have I gained from belonging to the U3A?

The Third Age Trust has provisional plans to "Celebrate the U3A Movement" during the 2011 National Conference. What they looking for are 'testimonials' from members stating what they have gained from belonging to this organisation. I think this could be an extension to our appeal for 'writers'; I am sure that by joining the U3A of Highbridge you have found that your life has changed somewhat; you have made new friends, gone to places that you would not otherwise have visited. There must be many examples of 'my life has changed since joining' so why not put pen to paper and let us know, go on, give it a go.

Social Events

It is not yet possible to give details of possible Theatre Trips for this New Year, but as soon as information is available we will let you know.

Date: - Wednesday 20th April 2011

Show: - "Hairspray"

At: - Bristol Hippodrome

Meet: - Coach pick ups: -Bridgwater (Sainsburys Bus Stop) 12.15 pm
Bank Street Car Park (Highbridge) at 12.30 pm
Berrow Triangle 12.45 pm.

Price: - £37.00

P.S. There will be spare seats available on the coach should anyone be interested in going to Bristol to do some shopping, or if you have managed to obtain some tickets for "Hairspray" independently.

The proposed "Away Days" for this year are listed on Page 7.

Vour Orchard and Carole Loveridge, our organisers for this type of trip, have compiled the list on the basis of suggestions made in the past by you the member. You will note that the trips are all on a Thursday; this day was chosen because, from our magazine, it is the day when the least activities are held.

Good thinking, but, if you feel that there are events listed that you would very much like to go on and can not because of the day, then have a word with either Vour or Carole. They may not be able to make date changes because the trip is already booked with the coach company, but they may be able to make adjustments to future trips.

Please don't just moan, have a word with them, discuss it, they have volunteered to do trips for us and are still learning, they will appreciate getting your views, it may prove to be well worth your while.

Please note the following booking arrangements for theatre trips: -
Cheques (post-dated) must be made out to "U3A of Highbridge Social Club".

For further details please contact either Vi Chick (784033) or Roy Bryant (783780) or see them at the Wednesday Coffee Morning.
